News Photographer magazine supports the efforts of the NPPA in its role as the voice of visual journalism by communicating news, identifying trends, delineating issues, providing information, and recognizing the work of visual journalists. The columns and articles that appear in the monthly magazine are often cited as "the authority" on topics ranging from law and ethics to technology. A subscription to the magazine is a benefit of NPPA membership, but non-members can also order a subscription online or with this form.

You can obtain additional information from our web site: www.nppa.org, e-mail: info@nppa.org, or call 919-383-7246 x16.
